Welcome to Equivision

May 2017

Sheila Dean,
Global CEO

Welcome to another edition of our quarterly newsletter where we'll be covering news from a variety of business lines across the ever-growing number of jurisdictions in which we operate.

In this edition, we have an eBusiness update courtesy of Colin Gregory on the topic of Gaming in Malta and reaction to various budget announcements in the Isle of Man, United Kingdom and Hong Kong from local experts Roy Callow, Harry Lawson and Kenneth Yim.

We also hear from John Martin St.Valery, Founder and CEO at Links Group (an Equiom company) who presents an insightful article about helping businesses relocate to the Middle East.

This year we're celebrating the 10th anniversary of Equiom by challenging members of staff around the world to walk or run a combined total of 100,000 miles over 10 months. The challenge will raise money for 7 charities across the 11 jurisdictions in which Equiom operates. We've already started with 150 staff taking part in a number of sporting events and covering over 15,000 miles so far. Read more here.

Finally we'll end with a quick update on our new jurisdictions following our two most recent acquisitions in Scotland and Japan. The new locations complement our existing offices in the Isle of Man, Jersey, Guernsey, Malta, Hong Kong, Singapore, British Virgin Islands, Qatar and United Arab Emirates. If you require services in any of these locations, our local experts will be happy to help.

I hope you enjoy this edition of Equivision.

Sheila
